

Taylor Brannon

(502) 435-7283 - clarambrosia@gmail.com

University of Kentucky

- Computer Science major, Math minor
-

Work experience

- Teaching Assistant under Prof. Cheng at UKY for Logic and Theory of Computing
 - Designed and implemented effective grading policies, enhancing student evaluation accuracy
 - Optimized and maintained comprehensive spreadsheets, improving data management efficiency
 - Spreadsheet Manager for Independent Business in Georgia
 - Streamlined inventory and financial tracking, resulting in improved operational efficiency
 - Implemented systems to enhance accuracy in stock and financial management
 - Various Food Service Positions
 - Demonstrated adaptability and customer service skills across diverse roles
 - Consistently maintained high standards of service and efficiency
-

Relevant Skills

- Programming
 - Proficient in Python, R, the C family, Java, JavaScript, and additional languages
 - Fast and adept at learning new programming languages and technologies
- Task Management
 - Developed a personal task management system using Obsidian and Python, incorporating automation and conditional logic
 - Expert at independently breaking down and executing complex projects
 - Strong focus on achieving accurate and reliable results
- Communication
 - Skilled in creative, professional, and technical writing